HISTORY

In the year 1952, 27 eager crewmen boarded the ship Adventure, to travel to their goal, Port Success. We chose as captain of the crew, Wilford Conn, his assistant, Mary Ellen Mast, and Keeper of the log and financial affairs, Janice Mast.

As we stopped at our 1st port, Aden Troyer and Virginia Oswald decided to leave us and took another ship back to shore. As we started out; we again chose Wilford Conn as our captain, his assistant, Tim Miller, and Keeper of the log and financial affairs, Ruth Schrock.

As we started the 1954-55 year, the sea of life became rough and stormy. In the summer of 1954 Nelson Kaufman met with an untimely death. Jeanette Voltz, Janice Mast, and Alta Schlabach decided they had traveled far enough and ceased their journey. At the beginning of this year, two able bodied seamen, Ray Lantz and Cristy Hershberger joined our crew. Out captain once again was Wilford Conn, his assistant, Ray Lantz, Keeper of the log, Mary Ellen Mast, and Keeper of financial affairs, Ruth Summers. This year we honored the Seniors with a banquet and we presented the play, "Everybody's Crazy." We sponsored a scrap drive, a bake sale, and fun night to obtain funds to continue our journey. This year we published the "Beacon." The Editor of the annual was Wilford Conn and the business manager was Ruth Summers.

In the year 1955, 23 crewmen were aboard the Adventure to catch their first glimpse of Port Success. To guide us to the completion of our journey, for the fourth straight year again chose Wilford Conn as captain. Tim Miller, his assistant, Ruth Summers, Keeper of the log, and Kay Hummel, Keeper of finances. As our ship neared our final destination, Charlotte Troyer boarded another ship to return home and start a new life. We gave another broadway hit "You'll Die Laughing." To help our finances we sponsored a Home Talent Show, had a scrap drive, and picked potatoes. We also had charge of the concession stand at the home basketball games. Our crew of 22 gathered on deck as we pulled up to the dock to reach our destination "Port Success."

PROPHECY

Have you heard the latest discovery? Yes, a sensational formula has just been formed in the Berlin High School laboratory. While experimenting the other day, under the supervision of Mr. John Maxwell, John Mueller Jr. formulated a compound, which, when injected into the atmosphere, sends one sailing twenty years into the future. We've asked John to experiment for us this evening.

There, now we find ourselves in Berlin in 1976. Let's take a survey of the seniors of 1956.

We drive down the road and, oh dear, we would have to get behind a big truck to hold us up. J. & J. Trucking Co.? Say, that must be Junior Miller. Of course J & J stands for Junior and Judy. I also heard the other day that Mrs. Larry Haun, formerly Kay Hummel, is employed as a secretary at this company.

Say, have you seen the new Berlin Creek High School yet? Things have certainly changed. They tell me Tim Miller is principal.

Now let's take a drive up Mt. Hope Blvd. Here we'll get to see one of the largest factories in Berlin, The Wayne Door Company. Ruth Summers is employed here as private secretary to the President of the Company.

Kathryn McClure is also established around home. She and her husband are running the Health Center on Mt. Hope Blvd.

If we had time we could go see the mansion Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Martin just moved into west of Orrville. I'm sure Mary Ellen would be glad to see us all, but we'll have to be moving along.

Let's drive down Benton road and see if we can find out what happened to Jim and Deanna. They tell me Jim Menuez took over his father's business and is building a huge bridge near New York City at the present. Deanna is married and she and her husband are operating a branch of the Gerber Baby Food Factory on Benton Road.

We may as well drive down Holmesville Road and show you Ward Stutzman's huge Dairy farm. I always knew Ward would be a success. Oh, by the way, Ward is also married.

We may as well get back to the heart of Berlin again. Will someone please turn the TV set on. It's just about time for the Lantz Hour. It comes over WWST TV, Channel 9. Ray is touring in Europe right now with the Berlin Pops Orchestra and his wife is in charge of his program during his absence. She too is a great musician.

There is Roger Dunn's old homestead. Someone said Roger is still in Engineering School in Cleveland. He and Sue have an awfully cute apartment in Cleveland Heights.

Have you seen the new addition to the old Berlin Elevator? Since Nelson Miller took over sole ownership, things certainly have changed. Alfred Miller is one of his many truck drivers now. Neither Nelson or Alfred are married yet, but the future certainly looks bright for them at the present time.

If we drive down Charm Avenue, we can see the new Hershberger Memorial hospital, named in honor of one our classmates, Cristy Hershberger. Mary Gerber was recently appointed head nurse here. If we look across the street we'll see the new Dental Building where Wilford Conn has just recently moved to. Here, too, we find Ruth Schrock working as Wilford's assistant. Ruth has been married for eighteen years now and has a very nice little family.

While we're on Charm Avenue, we may as well go visit Anna Mae and Paul's Cheese factory. Here we find Anna Mae busy caring for her little cheese makers. I wonder if she'd have time to talk to us for awhile. Here she comes now. As we chat with her, we find out that Jennie Miller's husband is employed at Mueller's Cheese Factory, Voleta Bixler is a missionary nurse in Japan since 1961, and Emma Hostetler and her husband own a small restaurant in Akron. You will recognize the place by the sign out front, "Eat at Emma and Ernie's"!

If we can snap you out of this spell we put you in, we'll move along now.

CLASS WILLS

I, Ruth Summers, will my long-awaited typing medals to Nancy Mast, my position as assistant to the associate-editor of the school paper to Merle Mullet, my position as Varsity cheerleader to Judith Menuez, and my drivers license to Donald Mast.

I, Kathryn McClure, being of sound mind, will my slenderness to Mary Louise, and my long bus ride back to the people who gave it to me.

I, Emma Hostetler, will my 60 word medal in typing to Nancy Mast, my drivers license to Stanley Kaufman, my short fingernails to Mary L. Miller, and my turtleneck sweaters to Marilyn Begly.

I, Tim Miller, will my bell and time clock to Juanita, my two pens that won't write to Dale Wurthmann, my place on the paper staff to Merle, and our Senior Class parties to any class willing to accept the reputation.

I, Ruth Schrock, will my cheerleading job to Wanda Hostetler, my long fingernails to Carol Mast, my typing medals to Merle, my safe driving to Nancy my hatred toward hillbilly music to Judy and Juanita, my love for music to Marilyn, and last of all my tardy marks to Ruth Gerber.

I, Nelson Miller, will my towering height to Tim Johnson, my driving ability to Juanita, my basketball ability to Merle Alberts and Henry H. if they want to improve. My third period study hall in the afternoon to anyone who likes to cut up.

I, Ward Stutzman, will my short hair to Henry H., my ability to cut up in study hall to anyone who wants to get in trouble with the teacher, my hillbilly songs to Sam K., my driving ability (if any) to Juanita, my basketball ability to anyone who likes to sit on the bench.

I, Roger Dunn, will my typing ability to Mazie, my driving ability to Juanita, my "cutting up" ability to the freshman boys, and my ability to get in so much trouble to anyone who cares to have it.

I, Jim Menuez, will my forsaid property locker no. 16 to Judy Yoder and my great ability to think in Literature and all English Classes to my good friend Miss Boyd. My ability to get blamed for everything to Stanley and my driving ability to Juanita.

I, Cristy Hershberger, will my weight to Nila Miller, my height to Sherman Yoder, and the "I's" in Government to any Senior who is unlucky enough to get them.

I, Ray Lantz, will my bass voice to Dale Wurthmann, my little cricket to Connie Miller, and my butch haircut to Stanley Kaufman.

I, Mary Gerber, will my slenderness to Mary L., my straight hair to Mazie my C's and D's in English back to the teacher that gave them to me, and the front seat to anyone that is lucky enough to get it.

CLASS WILLS CON'T.

I, Anna Mae Brown, will my long hair to Kathryn Fry, my shyness to John Yoder, my love for typing to Marilyn, my privilege to pop corn to anyone who is so unfortunate to get the job, and my ability to go through High School without being absent to all "school skippers."

I, Mary Ellen Mast, will my short, thin hair to Marilyn, my big feet to Wanda, my ability to get a man to Diana Hecker, my "old-maid" parts in plays to Judy Yoder, and, last but not least, my extra "three inches" to James.

I, Deanna Phillabaum, will my short fingers to Eleanor, my excess weight to Ruth Gerber, my D's in English Lit. back to Miss Boyd, and myself to the first tall, dark, and handsome guy that comes along.

I, Jennie Miller, will my straight hair to Wanda Hostetler, my front seat in the West Room to Ruth Gerber, and Les, I keep him for myself.

I, Voleta Bixler, will my shortness to Esther Maxwell, my love for school to Ina Ruth Weaver, and my good school record with no tardy marks to Marilyn.

I, Junior Miller, will my front seats to James, my ability to manage girl affairs to anyone who cares to be a bachelor, my basketball to Willis if he cares to sit on the bench, and my third period study halls to the next years Seniors.

I, Alfred Miller, will my height to Tim Johnson, my dirty looks from Mr. Sturges Miller to anyone who wants them, my good grades in Literature to Sam, my fun in third period study hall to anyone who knows how to take advantage of it.

I, Kay Hummel, will my job as chorus pianist to John Yoder, my majorette position to Cynthia Phillips, my long awaited driver's license and my ability to keep from chewing my fingernails to Judy Yoder, my ability to get out of all my study halls to Christina and Connie, my position as Editor of the school paper to Eleanor Oswald, my hicups to Sue Miller, my love for Killbuck to Donald Mast, and my seven years of cheerleading to anyone who wishes to make such a career out of it.

I, Wilford Conn, my body and mind being in good shape do before these witnesses bequeath all my forsaid property to "no one." I have changed my mind and decided to keep my property but will sell to the highest bidder.

CLASS POEM

Into a life of Success
22 Seniors do aim,
With Aims mighty high
To accomplish our fame.

Although we are Seniors
Our work isn't done,
We aren't finished
We've just begun.

We're just starting our life
Which will determine success,
It depends on ourself
Each one will confess.

It is a big moment
When we stand to our feet,
To receive our diploma
Which shows undefeat.

High School days we'll remember
And speak of them with pride,
There are times we won't forget.
Which actually proved we tried.

We had our ups and downs
And many times were blue,
But received the needed advice
That always pulled us through.

We soon found out
It wasn't all play,
But we had to work
For Graduation Day.

So here we are gathered
To give our farewell,
Good-bye Berlin High School
We think you are swell.

To the faculty and parents and friends
Who were so very sweet,
But patience was the key word
Which proved you were hard to beat.

We'll remember the advice you gave
And your guidance all the way,
Apparently it was good advice
Or we wouldn't be here today.

To the rest of BHS
Who aiming to go far,
Remember our motto
BE THE BEST OF WHATEVER YOU ARE.
